Motion to approve the consent agenda by Lynam/Wood. Motion passes by unanimous vote.

OLD BUSINESS: None

NEW BUSINESS:

A. Dublindee 5K Race and St. Patrick's Day Parade/Fireworks Presentation

Eileen McNamee stated that the St. Pat's parade and 5K march will take place on March 10 and fireworks will be on March 16. She said that the Village advised her of some budgetary constraints however she is still requesting that the Village cover the cost of the portable restrooms as has been done in the past. She explained that everything funded for the parade is by donations and volunteer work. Any leftover funds afterwards are donated to the F.I.S.H. food pantry. She advised that volunteer meetings started last week and another will be held next week. She also commented that there was a confetti issue last year with one specific float. She said that she has included on this year's application that no confetti is allowed. However, she requested if paper confetti could still be thrown at a spot across from the depot during the national anthem.
