Village Engineer – Village Engineer Heinz stated the Street Program is complete. He stated striping will take place in the spring unless we have consecutive 60 degree days.

Bob Skurla – Skurla stated he received word from his contact regarding Senior Housing. This would be a 100 unit property which would be similar to a property in Fox Lake. Village Trustees:

Trustee Ruffulo – Ruffulo reported on an e-mail from Koehler regarding his retirement schedule. He would like to have a photo taken of the Board and Staff before he leaves. Bartels would like staff to put together a letter for the Board to review and be sent out.

Trustee Cichowski – Cichowski reported on the Chamber Expo at Spring Hill Mall on November 6th. Village Clerk Rehberg attended. On Nov. 10th, he attended the ECC Open House. He stated the DTPD has not received the letter of confirmation regarding the Movies in the Park. Mee stated the company is using North Street lawfully. He stated the Village could create an ordinance for this issue.

Trustee Gorman – Gorman asked Heinz if the roads are constructed for large trucks. Heinz stated the garbage trucks are the worst. He also asked if the Board can instill an interior lighting ordinance for businesses. He asked if we can restrict the time of usage of a business property.
