5.0 New Business –

5.1 Presentation and Request for Application – Bandito Barney's Buyer (Scott Cunningham)

Mee introduced Scott Cunningham. Mee explained the status of the sale. Cunningham is hoping to close during the first 2 weeks of August. Cunningham introduced himself to the Commission and gave his background. He explained the upgrades he would do if he becomes the owner of the property. He would like to keep the same staff and provide training. He would monitor noise levels from the bar. Bartels reminded Cunningham of the Village's Façade Improvement Program for help. There was consensus from the Commission to allow Cunningham to move forward with the application process.

5.2 Approval of Class H Entertainment Venue License – Premier Banquets

Motion to approve a Class H Entertainment Venue License to Premier Banquets by Bartels/Miller.

Discussion:

Bartels explained that this agenda item is regarding the new Class H License. Mee introduced Carla Moctezuma, representing Premier Banquets. Moctezuma asked if they would be able to sell beer outside in the rear of the facility for a Car Show on 07/28/12. Mee stated that Premier's license(s) would not permit outside sales of liquor. Mee stated a Class F License is for a special outside event at a different location, other than the original license held property. Miller explained to Moctezuma that there isn't enough time to put the license together for an event on 07/28/12.

Roll: Ayes – 2 – Trustee Miller and President Bartels. Nays – 0. Absent – 1 – Trustee Ruffulo. Motion carries.
